COMMENTS

S. N. KATYRIN

President of the Russian Chamber of Commerce and Industry, head of the Organizing Committee of the Russian Textile Week

“ The appearance in Russia of such a high-profile exhibition-forum on the textile and apparel industry testifies that domestic and foreign business, institutions for the development of entrepreneurship and the authorities, after many years of "omissions", have finally been able to come to a common denominator. Indeed, in its essence four leading textile exhibitions of the country have come together - this is without exaggeration a dream for many years. All parties to this process are actively involved in the revival of the Russian textile industry, and this trend towards joining efforts will continue.

A. N. SHOKHIN

President of the Russian Union of Industrialists and Entrepreneurs

“ The organization of a forum of this scale is due to the need to unite the efforts of all interested parties to create conditions for the further development of the industry based on the modernization and innovative renewal of enterprises. Holding the "Week of Apparel Industry", the severity of the problems raised at it are an important signal for adjusting the development strategy of the industry based on new tasks and market requirements to increase the competitiveness of domestic products.

A. V. RAZBRODIN

President of the Russian Union of Textile and Apparel Industry

“ Combining the current business program with a rich exposition of exhibitions within the Week showed that the trend in the coming years will be the consolidation of actions of all segments of the industry and related business areas. Joint agreed proposals, formed as a result of the conducted Week, will in the future, without fail, be retranslated into recommendations for legislative initiatives or amendments to existing laws. And the regularity and popularization of the Week will be a guarantee of positive changes in the industry. Actually, this is what market participants expect from both the import substitution policy and the well-coordinated work of all business players.
